Coldwell Banker announces Top Agents for January

Top producers in January were Paul Carrese and Melinda Flynn. With a master's degree in education, six years of teaching experience and five years in the real estate business, Melinda has the dedication and skills to effectively focus, prioritize, and balance both major and minor details of each transaction. She is able to balance aggressive strategies, market resources, and negotiating expertise with a high level of integrity. Paul joined Coldwell Banker in 2002. Prior to real estate, he was a stock broker and investment manager. A graduate of Rolling Hills High School and the University of San Diego, Paul specializes in investment properties not only in the South Bay, but also Newport Beach and Rancho Mirage. Sales honors go to Virginia Butler and Lily Liang. Lily has built a stellar reputation for bringing a highly professional and dedicated level of real estate counsel to her clients. She is a consistent top producer in high-end real estate and earned top honors in 2006, making her the number one agent in the South Bay. Virginia specializes in the South Bay and is especially attuned to Relocation clients as well as Seniors — with designations and expertise in working with both groups. A Top Producer since 1980, Virginia Butler has been actively involved in her community as well as her profession. Lily also was named for top listing agent along with Vera Cecere and Dave Maffei from the Malaga Cove office. A native of Southern California, and a resident of Malaga Cove, Vera Cecere specializes in the marketing and sales of residential properties throughout Palos Verdes. Throughout her 25-year career, Vera has been a consistent top producer. Dave graduated from Loyola Marymount University with a bachelor's degree in business administration. Marketing, sales and leadership for more than the last five years have brought Dave a tremendous amount of success and growth in his business.

Lily Liang and Paul Carrese can be reached at their Coldwell Banker office located at 600 Deep Valley Drive, RHE, (310) 544-0303. And, from our 68 Malaga Cove office in PVE, you can reach Melinda Flynn, Vera Cecere, Dave Maffei and Virginia Butler at (310) 378-5201.
